ELIZABETH STEINWAY CHAPIN

On June 17, 1993 Elizabeth Steinway Chapin died of cancer.

Betty, as she was universally known, had been a member of the Council for 15 years. Without any doubt, she was one of the Council members best loved by both staff and board.

In remarks made at her memorial service in New York City, Peter Duchin, Vice Chairman of the Council, speaking for himself and Chairman Kitty Carlisle Hart, said: "From 1973, when she first joined us, until now she exhibited qualities that are valuable individually but priceless when combined...strength of character, curiosity, the ability to learn and grow, loyalty, vision and, most important of all, a sense of humor that included a real sense of the ridiculous...When we heard of her illness and then her death, we recognized that something had left all of us that never could be replaced."

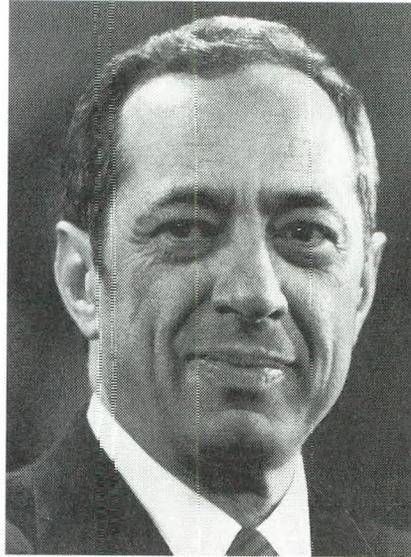

We will miss her.

Governor's Foreward

Once again, the New York State Council on the Arts has successfully met the challenge of maintaining New York State's position as the national leader in the arts through their support of artists, arts organizations and arts education. The national recession summoned government agencies at all levels to find new and better ways to provide services. The Council responded admirably, continuing to fulfill its mandate to bring the arts in all their diversity to all the people of this great State. I congratulate Kitty Carlisle Hart, the Council members and the Council staff for their efforts.

Governor

STATEMENT OF THE CHAIRMAN AND THE EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

The fiscal year 1992-93 saw our budget cut to $23.3 million, our lowest level since FY 1973-74, and a reduction of $4 million from FY 1991-92. This meant continued hardship for arts organizations in every corner of the State as well as for the Council's reduced staff. However, we had prepared for the worst in 1991-92, and we were therefore better able to deal with the consequences, both internally and with our constituents, and our staff helped every inch of the way. Primarily, we tried to find new ways to effectively help the field and operate the Council. For example, we focused our support on your ongoing operations, and we also initiated a pilot project that currently is active in two areas of the State in helping build more local support for the arts.

So we -- and you -- have come through, and we sincerely hope the worst is over. Already there is some light on the horizon, for as many of you know, our budget for the upcoming fiscal year, 1993-94, has been set at a figure $3 million higher than this year's. Much of that increase came about through your efforts. On top of everything else you do you were able to do that, too. Thank you, one and all, and we -- staff and Council members together -- will do all we can to vindicate your hard work.

Arts in Education Program

The major goal of the Arts in Education Program is to involve teachers, artists and arts professionals in joint efforts that will result in direct, active arts experiences for children. The program is a cooperative effort between the Council and the State Education Department, with the Council as the administering agency. Through the partnership of these two agencies, cultural institutions are funded to create collaborative arts and environmental science programs throughout the state for students from pre-kindergarten through twelfth grade.

State and Local Partnership Programs:

Decentralization Program

The Decentralization Program was begun in 1977 to make the arts more accessible on a local basis to all residents of the state. The means by which this goal is attained is by local regranting of state funds on a community or county-wide basis. Every county (with the exception of Manhattan) is currently served by the Decentralization Program, either locally or regionally, through designated non-profit arts organizations. Through this program local arts agencies administer a grants-making process, awarding up to $5,000 to arts organizations and individual artists within their county or region.

State and Local Partnership Programs:

Local Arts Organizations/
Services Organizations Program

The Arts Service Organizations Program supports local cultural development in communities around the state with the goals of increased awareness of the arts through public information, innovative programming and community/regional cultural planning. Central to these developmental goals is an active network of local arts councils providing services and activities to county-wide or regional constituencies. Most local arts councils also administer their counties' Decentralization Programs, regranting state funds locally to organizations and individual artists. The programs also support multi-disciplinary arts service organizations and multiarts centers.

Primary Organizations

In compliance with a legislative mandate that at least 50 percent of the Council's Local Assistance funds be directed to organizations designated as "primary," the Council filed the following list of cultural organizations with the State Division of the Budget for 1992-93.

Primary institutions are defined as "eligible arts organizations which, by the quality of their arts services, their stature as arts institutions on a state or national level, or by the importance of their contributions to a significant population or the arts discipline in which they specialize, are particularly important to the cultural life of New York State, and the loss of which or the diminution of services would, in the opinion of the Council, constitute a serious artistic loss to the people in the State."

FUNDING BY COUNTY 1992-93

The Council's appropriation act mandates that "the residents of each county receive arts services proportionate to at least 40 cents per capita of population in each county, except that Council grant standards of artistic quality and administrative competence must be met." In compliance with this mandate, in 1991-92 the Council awarded grants to organizations providing cultural services in each of the state's 62 counties in the amounts shown below. The "required" amounts are based on the 1990 U.S. census figures. The Council's response to the mandate is made through grants to organizations which apply to any and all Council programs through the normal application process. In addition, grants are awarded to organizations that provide arts services on a statewide basis. Grants for these purposes are shown at the end of the list as "statewide."

1992-93 Advisory Panels

The Council draws upon pools of experts in each field to make recommendations in reference to grant recipients and grant amounts. In some cases, panelists may attend only one meeting during the year to assist the Council in making decisions on a specific grant category. The following list shows the names of individuals who served in some capacity as advisory panelists in 1992-93. The list also shows panelists' professional affiliations and geographic location.
